

DOM MIGUEL EAGER TO FIGHT FOR MANUEL

Says Portugal's Army Is at Heart
Loyal to the Deposed Young King.

RESTORATION A CERTAINTY

Powers Will Consent, Says Ex-Pretender,
Because Conditions Couldn't Be Worse Than Now.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun.
ST. JEAN DE LUZ, France, March 23.—The proposed movement to restore King Manuel to the throne of Portugal, from which he was deposed about eighteen months ago, will be one of the most formidable ever prepared against an existing Government, according to the man who expects to lead it, Dom Miguel of Braganza. The former pretender discussed his plans freely to-day.

Dom Miguel emphasized his belief that it was only a question of time when the Portuguese monarchy would be restored by citing recent outbreaks in various parts of the country. Neither property nor personal rights are respected at present, he alleged, and he said he was satisfied none of the Powers would protest against the overturn of the present rule, because no change that could be made could make internal conditions in Portugal worse than at present.

Dom Miguel said that he would be commander in chief of the army, having made a lifelong study of military science. He believes he can make the Portuguese army second to none of its size in Europe.

"I dream of my beloved country and its people," he continued, jumping to his feet and walking backward and forward in his richly appointed study. "I want to take the field in person and restore real freedom to our oppressed subjects. I want to take our army, now degraded from a once great instrument, and make it a real fighting machine."

"I am a soldier and want to practise my profession. This luxury is wearisome. I want to live in barracks. I want to train men. I want to live by day and sleep by night under the same roof as the men who wear my country's uniform. The rank and file of the army are true to the King despite his exile. And they will welcome him back and become my loved comrades at arms when he is restored."

"At times I become so homesick for a sight of my native land that I take ship and cruise along the cliffs and beaches, and the roar of the surf breaking on its shores is sweet music to my ears."

"Why, when my son, Prince Miguel, was born I was in the Portuguese soil. When that boon was refused I had a carload of earth brought from my native land and spread in the room where the boy was born so that literally my heir might be born on Portuguese soil."

Dom Miguel admitted that both he and King Manuel hoped to receive aid from Spain when the expedition to restore Manuel becomes a reality. He said that the report that the expedition was held up because of lack of funds was too absurd to deny.

"When we want to strike we will strike and that without warning," he added significantly.

KNOX DAYS IN CARACAS.

Secretary Places Wreaths on Washington and Bolivar Statues—Entertainments.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun.
CARACAS, March 23.—Secretary Knox spent the morning in the Venezuelan capital to-day visiting the public buildings and parks. Accompanied by President Gomez, he paid a visit to the Military Academy and from there proceeded to Washington Square. A statue of George Washington is situated there and wreaths were placed at its base. Mr. Knox also placed a wreath on the statue of Simon Bolivar in the National Pantheon. He also visited the National Museum, Bolivar Square and several of the public buildings.

At noon the Secretary and his party took luncheon at the American Legation. A reception in his honor was given by the Foreign Minister in the afternoon. This was followed by a ball in the evening.

There was a bull fight to-day, which Mr. Knox and his family did not attend. The rest of the party were there, however. The Secretary witnessed a drill by the Cadets of the Military Academy at the Pantheon Museum. He also received a formal welcome by the municipality.

The entertainment of Secretary Knox and the honors paid him surpass anything ever before attempted by Venezuela. The Archbishop of Caracas has suspended the observance of Lent during Mr. Knox's visit and business activities have been stopped.

There were superb illuminations and fireworks last night and to-night.

SACRIFICE TO MOLOCH.

"Vorwarts" Urges German Socialists to Oppose Defence Appropriations.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun.
BERLIN, March 23.—A bitter attack was made to-day by the official organ of the Social Democrats, "Vorwarts," on the Government's military plans. It declared that the proposed increase in the army and navy will eventually smother the taxpayers. The Socialists in the Reichstag are urged to fight the Government plans and a combination against the expenditure is suggested. In conclusion the "Vorwarts" says:

"The Government seems determined to sacrifice the people's health, welfare, education and progress to the war machine."

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun.

ITALY TO ATTACK TURKEY.

Fleet May Operate All Along the Coast
—Found in British Ship.

Special Cable Despatches to The Sun.
MILAN, Italy, March 23.—The decisive stages of the Turco-Italian war seem likely to be reached in the immediate future. Italy is planning to carry the war into Turkey. Her warships may yet attack the entire Turkish coast. It is believed here that the offensive movements are already planned and will be put into effect during the coming fortnight.

The Italian officials realize that they must strike promptly or European complications may tie their hands. The three most powerful warships in the navy, the Umberto, Sardegna and Sicilia, will sail on Wednesday from Taranto to join the squadron which is off the Dardanelles. On their arrival decisive operations are expected to commence.

ROME, March 23.—The Government has given out an official statement of the arrest of the British steamship Rescuer on February 26 at Trapani by an Italian torpedo boat. It was believed at the time that the vessel was practically the only source of supply of the Turks in Tripoli.

The Government's statement declares that the cargo of the vessel consisted of field guns, Mausers, Martinis, swords, bayonets, cartridges, shrapnel, gunpowder, underclothing and socks.

The master of the Rescuer admitted that Turkey had deposited $30,000 in a London bank to compensate the owner in the event of the vessel's capture by the Italians.

MONEY RELIEF FOR CHINA.

Belgian Deal Nearly Completed—Tang
Would Borrow at Home—Swa-tow Fight.

Special Cable Despatches to The Sun.
BRUSSELS, March 23.—What is styled Baron Cotte's Belgian loan to China has nearly been completed after wearisome negotiations to obtain the consent of Great Britain, Russia, France, the United States and Japan.

SHANGHAI, March 23.—The situation at Swa-tow as reported here this morning is growing worse, and the people, fearing a massacre, are leaving the city in large numbers. All the shops in the city have been closed up and business of all sorts has been completely paralyzed by the activities of the bandits and other malcontents.

Troops from Canton have been sent to the vicinity of Swa-tow to regain control of the situation. A battle is reported to have taken place about twenty-five miles from the city and the Swa-tow troops have suffered heavy losses at the hands of the Cantonese soldiers. Other encounters are expected as the authorities are determined to subdue the Swa-tow troops who rebelled and took to the country.

Other disturbances in various parts of the southern provinces were reported to-day but the authorities declare that they are not serious and will be put down in a short time.

Tang Shao Yi, the Premier, who is here, is believed to be arranging for a loan with Chinese interests. He discussed the question with prominent merchants to-day, and if satisfactory arrangements can be made the loan undoubtedly will be forthcoming. The Premier, it is known, is opposed to a foreign loan if it cannot be secured immediately.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—An attempt was made to assassinate Hi Sing Wing, Minister of War of the new Chinese republic, according to a cable message received to-night by the Chung Sing Yat Po, a Chinese paper. The despatch says a bomb was thrown at the Minister's carriage, killing Chen Ti, one of his aids. The bomb thrower escaped.

AUSTRIA CORDIAL TO WILLIAM.

Press and Government Join in Welcome
—Kaiser Speeds On to Venice.

Special Cable Despatches to The Sun.
VIENNA, March 23.—The Kaiser arrived here to-day in a driving rain. He was accompanied by his son Prince August Wilhelm, the Prince's wife and his own daughter, the Princess Victoria Luise. As he alighted from the train he was greeted by the personal aids of the aged Emperor Francis Joseph, who welcomed him to the dual kingdom.

It was explained that the Emperor had desired to greet his imperial visitor personally, but that his physicians had absolutely prohibited his making the journey and exposing himself to the inclement weather. Francis Joseph greeted the Kaiser at Schoenbrunn Palace, to which the German monarch was escorted surrounded by a strong guard of household cavalry.

The Kaiser left to-night for Venice after a cordial farewell to the Emperor Francis Joseph. At the railway station he requested the Archduke, Salvator, who accompanied him there, to express to the Emperor his warmest thanks for the very friendly reception which had been accorded to him in Vienna.

The press gave a hearty welcome to the Kaiser. The official Wiener Abendpost says the visit is a new pledge of the cordial relations between the Emperor and his true friend and tried ally.

VENICE, March 23.—Extraordinary precautions have been taken here against the carrying out of any plots by anarchists during the meeting here on Monday between the Kaiser and King Victor Emmanuel. Even Germans will not be admitted to the railway station for two hours before the Kaiser's arrival.

HOPES TO END THE COAL STRIKE ON MONDAY

Miners Consent to Meet the Owners in Conference—Won't Drop Minimum Wage.

SOUTH WALES DIFFICULTY

Operators Obstinate Because of Earlier
Broken Agreement—Trouble in Spain.

Special Cable Despatches to The Sun.

LONDON, March 23.—Settlement of the coal strike depends on the operators who are the outspoken declaration of the union leaders after a conference to-night. They said that either the operators must agree to a minimum wage of five shillings daily for men and two shillings for boys who work below ground or the men will remain out and starve if necessary.

"We have made the last concession," said Enoch Edwards, leader of the miners to-night. "If we are to starve we might as well do so in the knowledge that we fought for what we knew was right. If the operators will agree to our minimum on Monday our men will go to work on Tuesday. It is up to them."

Enormous pressure from financial and political circles is being brought to bear upon the operators to give in. They will confer before the meeting on Monday.

A more hopeful feeling was discernible to-day. It was believed the strike would be settled on Monday, although there was absolutely nothing tangible on which this hope was founded. Should the two sides fail to come together on Monday the minimum wage bill will be passed through the Lords. But the miners say it is now impotent and will not end the strike. They say they will not go back to work unless the minimum wage scale is fixed either by agreement or by law.

If the strike does not end on Tuesday the operators will try to start up with strike breakers. Anticipating such action the Government is prepared to move troops into the coal regions and furnish protection. This will mean bloodshed, as the temper of the men is very bitter. To prevent it Premier Asquith is aiding in the pressure being brought to have the operators yield.

The conference set for Monday is to be between the miners and owners. A meeting of the Miners' Federation was held to-day at which it was discussed. Resolutions agreeing to the meeting were adopted without any dissensions. Opinion as to the outcome differs and the failure of the meeting would not be unexpected. The South Wales mine owners undoubtedly will prove to be the stumbling block because of their attitude that none of the demands of the men should be granted on the ground that the miners in their agreement with the South Wales owners covenanted not to strike for a definite period.

MADRID, March 23.—The Cabinet held a session to-day and discussed the coal situation for some time. After the meeting it was announced that the Government would issue an order temporarily prohibiting the exportation of coal and that the duty on that fuel would be suppressed. It will also introduce a bill in the Cortes regulating mining work and establishing the principle of the minimum wage.

The coal situation at Bilbao is alarming. A general strike is imminent.

Half the Pianos in American Homes Might as Well be Boxed Up!

HALF the homes that have pianos, have no one to play them. The pianos stand silent—mute testimonials to an unsatisfied desire for music.

By one simple act of volition, one single moment of decision, this condition could be changed.

The Silent Piano that wears out its life in waiting, used only by some visitor who can play, could be exchanged for a modern Pianola Piano, which, with its Metrostyle music-rolls would enable the whole household to play—intelligently, artistically, with intense personal pleasure, and at once!

Nothing else can so transform a home as

The Pianola Piano

In place of the silent piano here is a superb instrument that makes available a library of more than 16,000 pieces of music, with all the popular successes being added every week.

Only when you make this change, be sure it is the Pianola Piano you get. There are many imitators, but there is only one Pianola. It is built only by the Aeolian Company and is furnished only in five pianos:

The Steinway The Weber The Steck The Wheelock The Stuyvesant
From $550 up. A down payment of only $25 puts a Pianola Piano in your home

A Suggestion. In almost every case where there is a silent piano, the exchange for a Pianola Piano would take place at once if the owner realized what the Pianola Piano does—how it gives every member of the household the power to play, expertly and with absorbing enjoyment—how it provides entertainment of universal appeal—how it educates and inspires children. Instead of remaining in the dark, or assuming that you know, why not spend a half hour at Aeolian Hall and see what a perfect instrument the Pianola Piano of today really is?

CARNEGIE PEACE OFFICES.

Will be Opening in Paris.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun.
PARIS, March 23.—Andrew Carnegie's Endowment for International Peace has established its European offices in the Rue Pierre Curie, a new street in the Sorbonne district. The offices are situated on the fifth floor of a new building facing the Prince of Monaco's Oceanographic Institute. The inauguration this afternoon was coupled with a reception to Ambassador and Mrs. Bacon.

Baron d'Estournelles de Constant in thanking the American Ambassador for the establishment of the offices in Paris defined the endowment as a means of allowing men of good intent in every country to recognize one another and collaborate. He said, "It is a union of every patriotism in the service of civilization."

Ambassador Bacon, who responded, regretted the absence of Frederick Passy, a promoter of international peace, because of illness.

A cable message was sent by those attending the inauguration to Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, asking him to convey thanks to Andrew Carnegie.
